

FOOD

November 2010

and

£3.80 US$9.99

14-PAGE
CHOCOLATE
SPECIAL

TRAVEL

Chocolate

Inspiration from Marcus Wareing

41 fantastic

recipes

Gordon
Ramsay's
autumnal menus

Gourmet travel in Bermuda

Thai street fashion
Authentic Asian cuisine

CASABLANCA
Morocco's culinary capital

Liquorice and bitter chocolate muffins

Train trips
not to be missed

Evora
Portugal's hidden gem

soups cruise news brew pubs pierre koffmann abu dhabi brownies

SUBSCRIBE NOW

AND RECEIVE TWO BARS OF AKESSON'S CHOCOLATE FREE

In celebration of our indulgent chocolate issue, we are offering all new subscribers to Food and Travel two bars of Akesson's single plantation chocolate, completely free.

The France-based company sources the finest cacao beans from its own Madagascan plantation to create the highest quality chocolate. Perfect for your own sweet tooth or even as a gift, each new subscriber this month will receive a bar of Akesson's aromatic black pepper chocolate, whose beans come from a plantation which has been producing cacao since the 1920s. The aromatic black pepper in this bar – which has flavours of pine kernels combined with lively accents of green fruit – is carefully selected from the same pepper vines that surround the cocoa trees. This sweet treat is the perfect accompaniment to share after a warming winter dish of succulent pork or beef – safe in the knowledge that you will still have one whole bar left for yourself.

Your second gift is the Voatsiperifery 'wild' pepper chocolate bar; with its exotic lingering flavours, it is the ultimate comfort during the cold, dark evenings. Grown exclusively on the east coast of Madagascar, local villagers climb the tall tropical trees to handpick the wild pepper grown on the highest reaches. Tuck in to this naughty-but-nice bar to sample its floral, citrus and earthy taste, or save it for a special occasion. So be quick not to miss this tempting offer. □

Akesson's chocolate bars cost £5 each and are available via mail order through its own website. For more information or to place an order, visit akessons-organic.com

Without an email address and telephone number, we cannot deliver the gift. Gifts cannot be sent overseas and will go to the billing address (even in the case of a gift subscription) unless otherwise stated. Gift offer only valid for subscriptions taken out before 30 November 2010. Allow 28 days after offer closes for delivery of gift. We reserve the right to replace the gift with another of similar or greater value in the unlikely event it is not available. Subscribers must be over 18 years of age. Please note, cancellation charges apply. This does not affect direct debit mandate cancellation rights.